

Dearest Sister,

I am so thrilled that you are willing to embark on an adventure with Father God through the help of the Holy Spirit and for Jesus to be glorified in the life of your husband!

Posture of Our Hearts As We Pray For Our Husbands

As I pray and reflect on this adventure of giving our husbands the greatest gift we could ever give them, our prayers, I thought to share some thoughts with you on the posture of our hearts as we come to pray.

Firstly, I believe that our time together will be one where God will pour out His grace and anointing to pray in line with "His" will for our husbands. Let's prepare our hearts to come without an agenda. Our time of prayer will be focused on God's desires for our husbands not ours. As simple as that statement is, it is pivotal to us receiving what God has prepared for us and our husbands. The focus is on praying for our husbands to be who and all that God wants them to be not our own idea of who they should be, basically our prayer is not to change them.

Secondly, it is important that we prepare for this time, thinking about areas of our husbands' lives that we want to see God move in, especially those areas that we are aware of as their closest neighbour, and the dreams and desires they have shared with us. We need a vision at the forefront of our minds which can only be inspired by the Holy Spirit not ours concerning our husbands.

Thirdly, as you know praying and fasting can be very effective in shifting things in the Spirit and the Bible shows us some things are only dealt with through prayer and fasting so I wish to encourage us to incorporate some fasting into our prayers whether it is the whole length or a few days here and there, God sees our hearts and honours our sacrifices.

Finally, please be mindful that the enemy will/could try and attack our marriages during this time as he definitely doesn't want what God has planned to happen at this time, so be a quick forgiver and make allowances for your hubby if he upsets you. Stay focused on your goal of praying for your husband and don't get distracted.

We declare that there will be testimonies even from now because of our intention to stay focussed on God and the gates of hell will not prevail in Jesus name.

Looking forward to what God will do.

Expecting.

In His love and mine,
Kemi
